

Graduate Credits

Graduate credits are those credits which are taken under a graduate course number (500-level or above) by a student enrolled with a graduate classification.